

NEWS FROM THE CITY CHURCHES.

The Reverend George W. Shepherd has been appointed pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church to succeed the Reverend Doctor Steeves, who has been elected president of Carlton College at Farmington, Mo. The appointment was made by the Reverend Doctor C. R. Collier, Presiding Elder of the St. Louis district, after consultation with Bishop McDaniel, who has charge of the St. Louis Conference, which meets at Carlton, Mo., March 2. Mr. Shepherd has preached before Trinity congregations on several occasions and his appointment is satisfactory.

An interesting series of lectures is being given at the Sunday night services of the Epworth League of St. John's M. E. Church by Doctor H. M. Meyers, illustrated by stereopticon pictures. They are designed to show the progress of Protestantism in the English Empire. Last Sunday night the subject was "A Royal Saint, Lady Jane Gray." To-morrow evening at 7 o'clock he will speak on "The Life and Times of Queen Elizabeth." This will be illustrated by stereopticon pictures.

At Christ Church Cathedral to-morrow night an address, written by the Reverend Phillips Salmon, Vicar General of the Archibishopric of Basilea, Syria, will be given by M. V. Assaf. The subject will be "Work Among the Orphans in the Orient." Although Doctor Salmon does not speak English, he will be present in the chancel in his usual vestments.

The Congregational Club will give its next monthly banquet at the Buckingham Club Monday evening, January 23.

The Reverend Doctor Sharp, Presiding Elder of the St. Louis District, M. E. Church, South, will preach at St. John's M. E. Church to-morrow morning.

At the Congregational ministers' meeting Monday morning the Reverend Matthew Mullin will present the theme, "Does the Manhood of Christ Make an Appeal to the Practical Men of To-Day?" The meeting will be held at First Church, Delmar, near Grand Avenue.

The Reverend George G. Ross and William Smith will begin their duties as moderator and secretary respectively of the congregational ministers' meeting Monday morning.

To-morrow will be a church day at Marion Avenue Reformed Church. Diplomas and Bibles will be given for faithfulness.

The revival services conducted by the Reverend Josephus Stephan, assisted by the Reverend William J. Veltkamp, are attracting large crowds at Marvin Memorial M. E. Church.

The next meeting of the Men's Club of the First Presbyterian Church will be held Monday. The club will be addressed by Doctor Leon Harrison on "The Merchant of Venice."

At the annual meeting of the Memorial Congregational Church the treasurer's report showed that all current expenses, including $100 for necessary repairs, had been met. The ladies' societies contributed during the year. The budget for the year was $1,000, which is already practically in sight. The spirit of the annual meeting was good and the giving generous. The new officers are: President, John J. Heitman; P. W. Allen, treasurer; Messrs. Turner, W. Allen, James, Thomas, Messrs. Hewitt, Baden, Skelton, Kerr and Blower.

A. C. McLeod, a gospel singer, of New Wilmington, Pa., will assist in all the work of Lucas Avenue Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the next few months. He has had an extensive experience as a gospel singer and comes to us here with the best testimonials. He will be heard first at the church services.

At the annual meeting of the Centenary Epworth League, the department of women and girls, under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. W. Hall, was the most prominent, reported twenty-six Sunday evening devotional meetings held with an average attendance of 150, 160 cottage meetings, forty hospital meetings, twenty-one street meetings and one sunrise prayer meeting, making in all 180 meetings.

The department of charity and help, under the chairmanship of E. A. Carpenter, reported twenty-four weekly services, a soup kitchen service held at the Hospital, $25 expended for charity. In the sick and suffering, fifty visits were made to the patients on Thanksgiving Day. 1,000 parts and 200 messages distributed among the patients at the city and provincial hospitals.

The department of literary work, under the chairmanship of C. H. Trowbridge, had a very successful year, reported twenty-four weekly services held every Sunday evening, the first Sunday of the month, which were well attended by the Juvenile Missionary Society. The average attendance for the six months was 1,000.
